

MONDAY GERMAN TAKES PLACE AT JEFFERSON

BALLOON IS BANKED IN PALMS, BAY TREES AND FOLIAGE PLANTS.

BLACK AND WHITE BALL

FASHION SHOW TAKES PLACE THIS AFTERNOON AND TO-NIGHT—COUNTRY CLUB ANNOUNCES PRE-LENTEN CABARET DINNER DANCE.

The last Monday German of the season, which took place last night at the Jefferson Hotel, was a brilliant affair. The ballroom was filled with palms, bay trees and foliage plants and palms and ferns were used in the foyer. The dining-room was arranged with spring flowers and shaded lights and baskets of tulips and lilies were used as centerpieces for the small tables, at which supper was served.

Colonel Jo Lane Stern led the german dancing with Miss Louise Wilmer, the debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur P. Wilmer. Miss Wilmer wore a handsome gown of white satin, with drapery of tulle finished in pearls. Some of the out-of-town guests attending the dance were Mr. and Mrs. Fairfax Harrison, of Fauquier County; Luther Kelley, of Williamsburg; Miss Polly Williams, of New York; Miss Elizabeth Howland, of Staunton, and Edward Pendleton, of New York.

Miss Frederica Campbell was hostess at a pretty little dinner last evening, the guests going later to the dance at the Jefferson. Covers were laid for two and Miss Campbell's guests included Miss Wallace, Miss Ellen Howland, Mr. and Mrs. Fredric Scott Campbell, John Allen Branch, Stuart C. Christian, Edward Harris and George Cole Scott.

PRE-LENTEN CABARET.

An attractive affair at the Country Club of Virginia will be the pre-lenten cabaret dinner dance, which will take place there on Thursday evening, March 2. Several New York artists will take part in the cabaret and all sorts of souvenirs will be given to the women present. The hubbubs will be reported elaborately for the affair and several hundred guests will be present. After dinner a series of dancing will be general and there will be a special car to bring the guests back to Richmond after the dance is concluded.

CARD PARTY NEXT WEEK.

One of the most attractive charity card parties of the season will be that given in the palm garden of the Jefferson Hotel Monday evening, February 25, by the Dorothy Payne Madison Chapter, Daughters of 1812, of which Mrs. Christian Clark is regent. Both auction bridge and five hundred will be played from 8:30 to 10:30 o'clock and handsome prizes will be awarded to those making the highest scores. Tables may be reserved through Mrs. John B. Swartzwout and Mrs. Craig Pelouze.

BIG CHARITY BALL.

The leading social event of to-day is the fashion show and black and white masked ball, which will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the ballroom of the Jefferson Hotel. A number of interesting parties will be given and society folk will attend the entertainments in large numbers.

Miss Virginia Randolph Elliott will be entertained by Mrs. Isaac Invernopt at the ball in the evening and some of Mrs. Invernopt's other guests will include Mrs. W. P. Fowler of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Williams, Jr., and Miss Elizabeth Hargrave.

Mr. and Mrs. William B. Massie will have as their guests for the evening Mr. and Mrs. John Skelton Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Ormond Young.

At another table an attractive party will include Misses Giselle Harrison, Mary Johnson, Caroline Preston and Elizabeth Cocker. Messrs. William German, Anton Adams, John Cecil and Francis Johnson.

Mrs. James Pollard, Mrs. Hugh Rose, Mrs. Horace Flowers and Misses Anne Royce and Nedra Patton will make up one of many groups gathered about the tea tables in the afternoon.

MINUTES OF TODAY.

Mrs. Archer Anderson, of 107 West Franklin Street, will be at home this afternoon from 4 to 7 o'clock.

Hostesses at the charity tea room in the Jefferson Hotel for this afternoon include Mrs. Garrett Buckner With, Mrs. de Soto Fitz Gerald, Mrs. Thomas, Dr. McAdams, Mrs. Thomas Scott, Mr. Wilson Augustus and Mrs. Gravatt Gray.

"Iphigenia in Aulis" will be the subject of Miss Lou Belle Gatesy Jones' lecture this afternoon at 4 o'clock at her studio, 6 North Second Street. Miss Jones is discussing the plays of Euripides, translated by Gilbert Murray, in a series of interesting talks.

PLATE WEATH TO-DAY.

The Old Dominion Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, in their annual custom, will place a wreath of American Beauty roses on the Houston statue of Washington in the Capitol this morning. Little Miss Virginia Atkinson, daughter of Mrs. Henry A. Atkinson, will place the wreath for the chapter, and the committee in charge of the ceremony includes Mrs. Sidney J. Pouley, regent; Mrs. Lillian Parker, Mrs. Randolph, Miss Anna Walker Batty, Miss Ella K. Mayo and Miss Rose Meredith.

The chapter, instead of giving its annual luncheon, will this year send a contribution to the Red Cross.

OF INTEREST HERE.

A marriage of widespread interest in Richmond and other parts of the State took place on Saturday at 1:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Benton Davis Thomas, of Norfolk, when her daughter, Mrs. Anna Florence Thompson, became the bride of State Senator Sidney Baxter Bachman, Jr., of Bunnymeads, Surry County.

Both are well known in Richmond, where the bride has often visited, and the groom is at present serving as the chosen of his county in the State Legislature. The entire lower floor of the home was artistically decorated. The drawing-room and library were made in evergreen, ferns and palms, interwoven with eucalyptus branches. The dining-room was arranged in green foliage and white and golden buttery, adorned the center of the table. The punch bowl was presided over by Mrs. George Moss and Mrs. A. S. Browne. An orchestra, concealed behind a mass of evergreens, rendered the wedding music, and to the strains of the wedding march from "Lohengrin" the bridal party passed through the library, into the drawing-room, to a room which had been designed between the two front windows of palms, ferns and palms.

Rev. Samuel T. Senter, of Epworth Methodist Church, performed the ceremony. The bride and groom were preceded to the altar by their two nieces, Misses Jean Grant and Mabel Barham, dressed in white, and carrying white baskets filled with pale yellow jonquils. The bride's gown was of ivory taffeta, with crystal buttons, a pearl necklace and brooch. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and Bride roses.

An informal reception followed the ceremony. The following young girls served in the dining-room: Misses Fanette Bell and Rebecca Thomas, Misses Sallie B. and Mary Ethel Nottingham, and Misses Anna and Mary.

On Wednesday, from 4 to 6 o'clock, a tea will be held at the home of Mrs. Thomas O'Reilly, 303 West Grace Street, for the benefit of the Centenary Methodist Church Improvement fund.

The Woman's Auxiliary of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church will give a colonial tea in the hall of the church
